

"We do not believe political statements should be disguised as news content."

Policy statement, Sinclair Broadcasting, April 2004.

If that is so, why are they airing the propoganda movie "Stolen Honor," and calling it news? That should not be allowed under FCC guidelines.